HAPPY NEW YEAR, EVERYBODY!

Well, here we are, ready for a clean slate to start all over, again!

I know of no better way to begin than to resolve to buy your own home, be it ever so humble. There is no satisfaction to equal it. There is always a way. If we want one badly enough.

Right now I have the best selection of homes in town that I have had in a long time—in all price brackets, terms, etc. Some with nice income possibilities. Call me and tell me about what you want and I'll give you my list.

FARMS.

Not very many, but maybe one of these will just fit. A good modern home, six rooms, well-located, on school and mail routes. 50 acres in excellent condition, another 50 leased until 1957 (can be renewed), new spring-fed tank, spring branch, all open land, lots of out-bldgs. Home has modern conveniences. Will sell on Veteran's plan, if necessary. $10,000 out, just off Alto Highway.

At Latex, on paved road, near school, 80 acres, livable house with modern conveniences, small dairy barn, chicken houses, etc. All open land but about four acres. Owner will finance, with reasonable down payment.

Call for full particulars on both of these.

I NEED MORE LISTINGS OF ALL KINDS!

Sunshine and Flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Haley of Hunter, Penn., are spending Christmas with relatives and friends in Houston county and in other parts of Texas. The number of last week traded them as far as Crockett, although they were chasing sunshine and flowers.

Holiday Visitor.

Miss Emma Reynolds, after spending the Christmas holiday in her hometown of Meigs, spent Monday with Miss Josephine Edmiston. Miss Reynolds dropped by for a day's visit before returning to her work with the state department of public welfare in Houston.

Not Here Due.

Postal regulations now permit the paying of bus rent quarterly or annually. Rent may be paid for balance of fiscal year at this time if patron so desires. No refund will be given if bus is vacated during paid-up period.

Postmaster.

State Senator Neville Colson extends to the Courier the following seasonal message: "Sincere regards at Christmas. May the pleasure Christmas brings you, be the kind that keeps on growing and may the year ahead be bright, with every joy worth knowing."

First Presbyterian Church.

An interdenominational New Year's Eve Communion service is being sponsored by the First Christian church, the First Methodist church and the First Presbyterian church. The radio-lighted service will be held in the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian church and will begin at 11:30 p. m. Rev. James Hefflin, Rev. William Newton and the Rev. Paul Parker will lead the service, which will include the reading of scripture, prayer and the celebration of the Lord's Supper. Everyone who would like to begin the New Year in church with God is most cordially invited and will be most welcome.

New Year Gratefulness.

Mrs. J. A. McConnell has the Courier editor's thanks for the following New Year message: "Extending joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain gladness and joy." Isaiah 61:11. May all that makes a Christmas night; all that truly cheers, remain with you and keep you glad through long and happy years, to our friend's wish, for which we thank her.

Happy Home Gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Baker of this city had all their children "home" for Christmas. Gathering around the table Christmas day were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hamilton and children, Judy Beth and Joe Jr. of Seimor, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hepper and Robert and Betty Ann of Tyler; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Baker Jr. of Tyler and Rev. and Mrs. Dan Baker and Becky of Dallas.

PRETTY CHRISTMAS EVE MARRIAGE

Miss Carol McConnell and Mr. James Dale Sinclair were united in marriage on the evening of December 24, 1953, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McConnell, in this city. The bridegroom's home is at Henderson, Texas. The double-ring ceremony united the young couple. Rev. Don Sinclair of San Augustine, Texas, performed the ceremony. The officiating pastor is a brother of the groom.

Wayne McConnell Jr., brother of the bride, served as best man. The matron of honor was Martha Ann Shaver.

Mrs. Martin Freshour was in charge of the wedding cake. Punch was served by Miss Betty Jean Bennett. The bride's wedding suit was of blue tulle. Only relatives and close friends witnessed this pretty marriage.

The groom is a graduate of Stephen F. Austin College, Nacogdoches.

LANGHAM FAMILY ENJOYS CHRISTMAS

Augusta, Texas, December 29, 1953. Editor Crockett Courier, Crockett, Texas: Dear Sir:

Guests in the home of Supt. HUNTER GETS LEG INJURIES BY ACCIDENTAL SHOT

A young man named Anderson, from eastern Houston county, suffered severe injuries to the calves of both legs from accidental gunshot wounds Monday while hunting in the eastern part of Houston county. He was brought to a local hospital, then taken to a Houston hospital for further treatment.

Reports are that the young man was walking in front of a companion, whose gun accidentally discharged. The lead from the gun struck the calves of both of Anderson's legs, inflicting severe injuries.
